Overview of facility

The EPS provides advice and recommendations in the context of learning, emotional and behavioural problems as they affect or are presented by children and young persons in the age range from birth to 19 years and where possible to prevent these problems arising. The major demand on the service is for direct work with children although a larger number of children are supported through consultation work. The service also works through adults with involvement in INSET projects, the WELB Behaviour Support Team, the critical Incident Response Team and various multi-disciplinary meetings and workings groups.

Overview of facility

We are a befriending Service.

Home-start volunteers support families by spending time, listening to and chatting with a parent/parents, offering support and understanding, accompanying the family on outings, helping parents keep medical appointments, finding out local services, further education etc, caring for the children where a stressed mother or father has a little time for themselves.

Our volunteers do not replace paid workers e.g babysitters, home helps, although from time to time they may perform some of these tasks. They work with families offering a mixture of practical help and emotional support.

Overview of facility

Omagh Early Years centre is a community daycare project designed to address the need for affordable, good quality daycare in the Omagh area. A small percentage of our service is used by social services and surestart for placement of children in need. Centre staff work in partnership with those agencies to offer a network of support for these families.

Overview of facility

Victim support is a voluntary organisation which offers a free and confidential service to those who have been injured or suffered personal loss as a result of crime. Sometimes it helps to talk to someone outside the family who knows how to help in crisis situations.

Providing help and information on compensation, security, court procedures, advice on how to contact other sources of help. Parents and children can be equally traumatised by crime and benefit from support.

Victim support is an independent voluntary organisation which helps a person come to terms with the experience of being a victim of crime.

Trained staff and volunteers can also help you with: Criminal Injuries, compensation process offering emotional support, information about applying for compensation and help and advice in making a claim.

Overview of facility

As a rural area, there is a decline in numbers of families and children attending playgroups and local schools.

We did have an out of school going for one year. We closed due to lack of attendance.

Our playgroup is still going after 18 years, we would cater for outside areas (5 mile radius), run courses for staff and parents including first aid, parenting and basic hygiene linked with Omagh College
